SLS "Tech Talk"

AN EXCITING TECH PROJECT JUST FOR YOU!

TOP PRIZE OF $1,000 IN EACH CATEGORY

1 Let's talk about the project!

Student Leadership Services is inviting ALL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS to develop, enhance, and refine their technical skills in videography, photography and graphics design, while educating their peers. The project is through a partnership with Best Buy and SLS that offers student trainings at NO COST in developing CLEAR, ORIGINAL, CREATIVE and EFFECTIVE videos, photos, and graphics. These platforms will be used to convey the SLS message on ANY of the 3 main adolescent health issues, (Physical Health and Safety, Relationship Skills, and Mental Health).

SLS "Tech Talk" trainings at six regional locations in Michigan from January - April 2017. Visit our website slstoday.org for locations, dates and times.

TRAINED students will then create their own projects (not limited to one) using the skills acquired and have a chance to participate and win in the SLS "Tech Talk" competitions held during the SLS Expo in May 2017.

Register as a group or as individuals via email (kudzai@slstoday.org) or call SLS on 248 706 0757. All project ideas must be submitted for approval by January 30th 2017.

2 What's in it for you?

At the Expo in May 2017, SLS "Tech Talk" competitions will take place. Prize money will be awarded for winners in each category: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place including "Best Overall Project". Each team or individuals have an opportunity to enter in all categories, NOT limited to one. All entries will be featured on all SLS social media platforms.
